

SEVENTH ANNUAL PHILOSOPHY OF SOCIAL SCIENCE ROUNDTABLE

*MARCH 11-13, 2005
BARNARD COLLEGE, COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY*

CALL FOR PAPERS

The seventh annual working conference on topics in philosophy of the social sciences will be convened in New York, at Barnard College, Columbia University. This Roundtable will continue a tradition of meetings that bring together a diverse group of philosophers and social scientists to discuss a wide range of philosophical issues raised in and by social research.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

- Margaret Gilbert (Department of Philosophy, University of Connecticut)
- Philip Pettit (Politics Department, Princeton University)

SUBMISSIONS

Abstracts on any topic in philosophy of the social sciences are welcome. We will assemble a two-day program of papers to be presented in workshop format so that intensive discussion can be the focus of the meeting. We choose papers with the aim of ensuring a broad mix of topics and of presenters from diverse disciplinary backgrounds. We particularly welcome contributions from junior colleagues and colleagues new to the area. In this spirit, we have established an alternate year policy for regular participants; in general, we will give preference to new contributors over those who presented papers at the previous year's Roundtable. Selected papers from the Roundtable will be published in an annual special issue of Philosophy of the Social Sciences (see any March issue of Philosophy of the Social Sciences from 2000 onward for papers from prior St. Louis Roundtables).

Send a ONE-PAGE ABSTRACT to any of the organizers by DECEMBER 15, 2004

If you would like to be on an email distribution list for future mailings, send a note to this effect to Jim Bohman at the email address below. And be sure to check the Roundtable website for background on the Roundtable (previous programs and the table of contents for Roundtable Special Issues of PoS) as well as news and updates: <http://bc.barnard.columbia.edu/~awylie/RoundtableIndex.html>
